The WFYI "Art of the Matter" radio broadcasting team, Travis DiNicola and Sharon Gamble, were both involved in the recent annual dinner of Impact 100 as finalists for Indy Reads and Phoenix Theatre, respectively. On the broadcast they share with the community their enthusiasm and understanding for our women's giving circle from a nonprofit's perspective.

Kelli Norwalk and Donna Oklak, co-founders, are interviewed as are Impact's first grant recipient representatives Matt Guttwein and Dr. Lisa Harris of Wishard.

Impact members are encouraged to listen to 90.1FM on Saturday. The interviews will also be posted on the www.wfyi.org/artofthematter.asp website on Monday, July 23 for a week if you miss the Saturday broadcast.

Indy Reads and John P. Craine House/Fairbanks

Congratulations again to our two grant recipients. Collectively, the 205 members of Impact 100 selected two proposals to receive our grants of $102,500 each in our second year.

We are pleased to finance a joint project of John P. Craine House/ Fairbanks for Parenting Education and Interventions for Substance Impacted Mothers and their Children. Craine House is one of only six facilities nationwide that allows women to serve out their court-mandated sentence while living with their pre-school age children.

Impact is also pleased to underwrite Indy Reads' Adult Literacy Volunteer Training program for the next 18 months. Indy Reads is the only organization in central Indiana accredited by ProLiteracy Worldwide providing free basic adult literacy tutoring. Impact funds will help alleviate these two critical needs in our community.

Indianapolis

Tell others about us so they can join us!

Thank you for being a part of Impact 100 Greater Indianapolis in 2007. Our message to the community is simple: as a group of women we can make a much larger impact upon the community than we can individually.

Our philosophy is as follows: we seek to fund critical needs, new ventures and innovative ways to solve social problems and to create a more civil and just climate in our community. We believe that every member of our community should have access to a clean, safe environment, cultural enrichment, family services and quality education and healthcare.

If you know other women in the Greater Indianapolis area that would be in agreement with our philosophy, please share this newsletter and help us grow.

With gratitude,
Impact 100 Greater Indianapolis Board
